

Donate used career clothes to help others through October 15

October 1, 2012

Accelerate (a nonprofit organization that provides technical training and job placement) is currently accepting donations of gently used business clothing to help men and women transition into the workforce. Shirts, blouses, ties, belts, slacks, and skirts are all welcome.

In addition to collection locations around the Laboratory, garments and accessories can be donated through October 15 at Del Norte Credit Union branches in Santa Fe, Los Alamos, Espanola, and White Rock during regular business hours.
